Case No.22-10964

Dear Judge Martin Glenn,

I am writing to address a significant discrepancy I've encountered in the BTC and ETH Claim Distribution Amount I recently received.

Upon meticulous review, it has become apparent that the distributed amounts do not align with the figures initially promised. According to my records, I was expecting distributions of BTC 1.040551 and ETH 18.691229. However, the actual allocations amount to only a fraction of these figures: BTC 0.04509751 and ETH 0.673924847856761707, respectively.

Furthermore, I believe there may have been a misunderstanding regarding my classification. Given that my claim exceeds $5000, I should not have been placed in the convenience class.

To clarify, based on my calculations, the expected distributions should have been as follows:

- BTC Distribution (28.95%): 0.290206 BTC
- ETH Distribution (28.95%): 4.839354 ETH

These amounts represent my entire life's savings. It's crucial to emphasize that this issue goes beyond mere inconvenience; it directly impacts my financial security and well-being.

This matter is of utmost importance, as it affects not only my own livelihood but also that of my family. I am at a loss for how to face them in light of this situation.

Attached for your reference is a screenshot clearly illustrating my original holdings and the distribution that was given to me.

I kindly request that this discrepancy be rectified urgently and with the utmost sincerity. Your immediate attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Warm regards,
Chun Ho Wu

Welcome CHUN HO
